Broadmoor Expects to See Insurance Proposal Friday

Only Main Problem Not Yet Discussed

NORTH COUNTY EDITION

THE POST

Vol. 31, No. 47 DELIVERED EVERY WEDNESDAY MORNING Wednesday, Nov. 30, 1977

By NANCY STANCILL

The new Broadmoor Police Commission Monday discussed almost every problem involved in starting up its Police Department again — except for the main question.

It took the newly seated Police Commission 1½ hours to get to the question of whether the Broadmoor Police Protection District will have liability insurance to begin operating a Police Department Jan. 1.

Randy Wall, one of the district's new commissioners, suggested at the end of the lengthy session that the commission continue the meeting at 6 p.m. Friday.

He said he expects Burlingame insurance agent Gregory Comaroto to have a liability insurance proposal by that time.

Before Wall was elected in November, he had presented a $9,800 quotation for coverage from Comaroto. The commission majority had declined at that time to act on the item, charging that it was incomplete.

The Broadmoor Police Department was forced to shut down last Dec. 31, when its liability insurance was cancelled. The district presently is contracting with Daly City for police protection. The contract ends Feb. 28.

The other new commissioner elected several weeks ago, Joseph Fillo, suggested Monday that Jan. 1 be the "target date" for getting the department in operation.

Fillo was responding to a question by new Commission Chairman Wayne Johnson, What is the board's pleasure as far as getting the department back in operation?"

Johnson, senior member of the three-person commission, took over the chairmanship informally, as the commission's custom dictates that it go to the member with the longest service.

He asked for volunteers for the post of secretary. Wall volunteered, so Johnson accepted Wall's action and sppointed Fillo to the post of commission treasurer.

The commission took no action to notify Daly City of its plans to cancel the contract. The contract specified a 30-day notice.

"Our hands are tied until we find out if we've got insurance," Wall said after the meeting.

The commission decided to send out letters to all 496 police departments in California to notify police personnel that Broadmoor is looking for lateral transfers to fill patrol positions.

Commissioners have estimated that Broadmoor will need to hire three to five trained personnel, since several of its former employes have found other employment. The commission has said it needs seven officers on the job.

The commission agreed to send out letters to all employes on inactive status to "request that they contact the commission regarding their employment," Johnson said.

Johnson also suggested that the commission set a meeting Dec. 6 to reorganize the Broadmoor reserves, volunteers who perform certain police patrol duties.

Giammona In School Chief Race

Veteran Daly City Councilman Anthony A., "Tony," Giammona is the first to announce his candidacy for San Mateo County Superintendent of Schools.

Giammona, a Westmoor High School, Daly City, physical education teacher and coach, said he will file for the county post in January. The election is set for June.

Giammona will seek to succeed Superintendent J. Russell Kent, who will retire.

The councilman took the microphone at the beginning of a Daly City Council meeting Monday night to make a brief announcement of candidacy.

"I am going to be a candidate for the county office of Superintendent of Schools," Giammona said simply.

"The council wishes you well," Mayor Albert Teglia said. "People of your caliber are vitally needed at all levels of government."

Giammona, 50, has been a Daly City councilman 11 years and served two years as mayor before Teglia's election last March.

He has been a vice-chairman of the San Mateo County Council of Mayors and a past chairman and present director of the North San Mateo County Sanitation District.

Giammona has been department head and athletic director for Westmoor High in Daly City for 22 years. He previously taught at Jefferson High School for four years.

Giammona holds a master's degree in physical education and has a secondary school administrator's credential, which he said qualifies him to be a high school district-level superintendent.

Giammona said his "political experience" would be an "advantage in a job that is particularly political, such as superintendent."

He said he believes that close working relations with local legislators and congressmen would enable him to represent San Mateo County effectively.

Giammona said the county should provide more resources to districts which have shown declines in state testing, adding that Jefferson Union High School District is an example of such a district.

He said he also is concerned that recent legislation has "eroded the authority of the schools in handling of truancy, suspensions and expulsions."

Giammona and his wife Ruth have lived in Daly City for 27 years. They have three children.

Judge Delays Hearing

A preliminary hearing for two men held in connection with a Daly City trailer park slaying was postponed to Jan. 9 by Junicipal Court Judge F. Jose deLarios Monday afternoon.

The two defendants, Edward F. Garcia, 26, and Eugene A. Rebollini, 23, both of San Francisco, previously had entered not guilty pleas to the Nov. 21 slaying of Scott Alvin Avery, a resident of the Golden Gate Trailer Park, 7301 Mission St., Daly City.

Judge deLarios said if Rebollini meets several conditions he will be released on his own recognizance. Among the conditions are that he continue to undergo medical treatment, that he live with his parents and that his whereabouts be known at all times.

The judge will consider a motion to reduce Garcia's $150,000 bail on Dec. 5.

Both men remain incarcerated.

Appeal On Site Denied

Daly City's City Council Monday unanimously denied an appeal relating to acquisition of Mission Street property for a city multi-purpose center.

The appeal, brought by attorney Wayne McFadden on behalf of property owners Art and Adrianne Sofos and by Daly City resident Elsa Ramos, charged that Daly City should complete an Environmental Impact Report on its plan to acquire through condemnation a 1.3 acre site for construction of a social services-recreation-library building.

The city filed a negative declaration on the matter, with city officials noting that a full EIR would be done when actual construction plans are completed.

City Attorney Albert Polonsky recommended that the council deny the request, since the city has stated its intention to file an EIR at the building design stage.

Polonsky also said the council also acted within its bounds to make a decision on the matter Nov. 7, rather than granting McFadden's request at that time for a continuance.

McFadden said earlier that the Sofos might decide to take the matter to court, if the city appeal were denied.

D.C. Cable-TV Review, Rate Hike Evaluation

Daly City will act soon on "the sword of Damocles that's hanging over Vista Grande Cablevision's head," the City Council decided Monday.

Thomas Renk, Vista Grande Cablevision Company's attorney, used the description to characterize the one-year probationary status Daly City has placed on the business.

The probation period ends Dec. 27 and after some discussion, City Council agreed to review the status at a Jan. 9 public hearing.

The council decided to proceed with a review of the company's status in the light of the franchise agreement that exists between Vista Grande and the city.

But a request by Vista Grande to raise its monthly service charge from $6.25 to $15, as well as for other adjustments, probably won't be heard for at least three months.

The council told City Attorney Albert Polonsky to hire a consultant to evaluate the rate request, a project Polonsky expects to take several months.

Polonsky said the consultant's fee is expected to be less than $5,000. He said he would recommend a specific consultant Dec. 12.

Although the council did not discuss the cablevision company's request in detail, indications were strong that they would look askance at a significant increase.

Cablevision has been a big headache for the city in the past, with angry residents complaining about poor reception and service. City officials often have exchanged heated words with cablevision representatives over living up to franchise agreement requirements.

However, city officials also have said complaints appear to have decreased in recent months. They also acknowledge they haven't been deluged with requests from other companies to take over the franchise.

Renk said Vista Grande officials "have been schizophrenic about their future in Daly City" because of the probationary status.

'Busiest' SSF Intersection Is Orange-El Camino

The intersection of El Camino Real and West Orange Avenue is South San Francisco's busiest interchange, according to City Planner Bill Costanzo.

In a typical 24-hour period, almost 30,000 vehicles travel the north-south portion of El Camino and West Orange, Costanzo said in a report concerned with updating the city's 8-year-old general plan.

Other busy intersections in South San Francisco (those registering more than 20,000 vehicles in a 24-hour period) are: the north-south intersection of El Camino Real and Hazelwood Drive (27,465 vehicles); the east-west intersection of Westborough and Gellert boulevards (26,025 vehicles); the north-south intersection of Airport and Oyster Point boulevards (21,063 vehicles); the north-south Airport Boulevard and Linden Avenue intersection (20,905 vehicles); the north-south South Airport Boulevard and Wondercolor Lane intersection (20,628 vehicles).

Also, the north-south Airport Boulevard at Baden Avenue intersection (20,614 vehicles); the north-south Airport Boulevard and Randolph Avenue intersection (20,370 vehicles); and the east-west intersection of Westborough Boulevard and Olympic Drive (20,209 vehicles).

In his report, Costanzo recommended that additional freeway facilities be provided to meet the growth needs of South San Francisco and environs, the Peninsula and the entire Bay Area.

"These facilities will have to meet the traffic challenge created by the increased emphasis on air travel and transport, the increased mobility of the Bay Area resident, the increased residential and commercial growth thereof, and the propensity of the average California family to own several automobiles," Costanzo's report said.

Pacifica Says No

By TERRY DAVENPORT

Pacifica's City Council meeting ended on a sour note Monday night when the council declined to send representatives to state public hearings on the coastal zone process, despite pleas from a former Pacifica planning commissioner and other citizens.

Critics Pot-Shot Targets

Two long-time critics of the Daly City residential rehabilitation loan program were the subjects of a few potshots at Daly Citys City Council meeting Monday night.

Conrad Pavellas and Ernie Pezzola, directors of the Original Daly City Protective Association and former members of the Daly City Rehabilitation Advisory Committee, had asked for answers to nine questions on the progress of the program.

Community Development Director Don Fleming complied with the request, presenting the City Council with a three-page memorandum.

Pavellas and Pezzola have charged for several months that the program, which began in October, was delayed because it was not a city staff priority.

The latest criticisms dealt with charges that only four of 12 fix-up loans have gone to bid and that delays, such as re-checking bids and processing of re-inspection requests, are holding up progress.

Residents Jane Powell and Eve Aiello said, however, that they resented the time the ODCPA charges were taking up in council meetings.

Mrs. Aiello, Hillside Homeowners Association director, said she is "sick and tired" of the attention paid by the council to Pavellas and Pezzola.

She pointed out that the council had spent a great deal of time going over "nine questions from two men from one organization" and that the staff had spent even more time responding to the questions.

"These two men resigned from the Rehabilitation Advisory Committee," Mrs. Aiello said. "I have applied for appointment to the committee and have not yet been given the courtesy of having my application answered."

Five vacancies have existed on the Rehabilitation Advisory Committee since October, but the council has not moved to fill them.

Council members offered no explanation to Mrs. Aiello as to why they haven't acted on her application.

Mrs. Powell, chairwomen of the Board of Trustees of the Jefferson Union High School District and a candidate for a Daly City City Council seat, asked the council whether Pavellas has been hired as a city housing inspector.

When council and staff members answered no, she said Pavellas "certainly does spend a lot of time going in and out of people's homes."

Mrs. Powell called comments by Pavellas and another ODCPA member,

Ottoboni Probation Terminated

San Mateo County Superior Court Judge Frank Piombo Monday terminated the probation of Colma City Councilman Raymond Ottoboni Sr., who 15 months ago pleaded "no contest" to a misdemeanor voting fraud charge.

The judge also granted a motion by Ottoboni's attorney, Lois Scampini, that the councilman's plea be changed from "no contest" to not guilty.

In July 1976, Ottoboni pleaded no contest to a misdemeanor charge of interfering with the election process in the North County city in which he resides.

Judge Piombo sentenced Ottoboni to two years summary probation, a $625 fine and 50 hours of public service work.

Seven days after the sentencing, the judge dropped the public service requirement, after Ottoboni had argued that his health was bad.

Assistant District Attorney Stanley Poling Monday opposed terminating the probation. He unsuccessfully argued that the judge had issued a lenient sentence and the councilman should be required to fulfill the full term of his probation.

Poling told the judge that in effect the punishment Ottoboni had received for his crime was a fine.

Poling said the fine had been paid.

'HOLIDAY GIVING' REVIEW

Mrs. Frank W. Hosmer Jr., (right) President of the Forum Club and long-time chairman of the literary section of the California Club of California, and Eileen Winter, book review chairman of The Friends of the Daly City Library, discuss some of the books which Mrs. Hosmer will feature when she presents mini-reviews of "Books for Holiday Giving for The Friends and their guests Dec. 1 at 10 a.m., in the community room of the Westlake Library. A coffee hour will precede the program. The public can attend free of charge.

Legislative Panel to Discuss Juvenile Rights

Three state legislators will participate Wednesday in a panel discussion on the effect of new laws concerning juveniles' rights.

Assemblymen Leo McCarthy and Louis Papan and Sen. John Foran will answer questions concerning the impact of the legislation on education.

The discussion, sponsored by the San Mateo County School Attendance Review Board and the Jefferson Union High School District, will be held from 3-5 p.m. at Jefferson High School's Little Theater.

Representatives of county police departments, probation departments, school personnel, community agencies and interested taxpayers are invited to participate in the Wednesday session.

Named to GOP Committee

Robert Naylor of Menlo Park again is a member of the Republican State Central Committee.

Naylor temporarily lost membership when he resigned as chairman of the San Mateo County Republican Central Committee after he announced his candidacy for the 20th District state Assembly seat being vacated by Dixon Arnett.

Naylor has been reappointed to the state group by Arnett, who is quitting the Assembly to run for state controller.

The appointment will enable Naylor to continue serving as a member of the executive committee and as chairman of the elections and reapportionment committee of the state party organization.

Pacifica Youths Seek Beach-Cleaning Funds

Raising money to clean Pacifica's beaches is the goal of the Youth Advisory Commission's "Youth in Action" auction Nov. 30 and Dec. 1 and 2.

The auction, which will be broadcast on the local cable television station, will be held from 7 to 10 p.m. each day.

Among the auctioneers are City Manager Donald Weidner, Fire Chief Cal Hinton, Supervisor Fred Lyon, Councilwoman Janice Fulford and Councilmen Mark Savage and Stanley Farber.

Proceeds from the auction are used to hire local youths to clean the beaches in the summer. Recreation supervisor Donald Cadman said the project is the only organized beach cleaning program in Pacifica.

A thousand 45 r.p.m. records will be auctioned during the three-day event, along with many other items.

Respite Providers Sought

The need for more "respite providers" is growing, according to a report from the Peninsula Association for Retarded Children and Adults.

It has trained 25 certified respite providers who are serving San Mateo County families with disabled relatives.

A total of 90 families have registered and must wait for help from additional respite providers, hence the call for trainees.

The need for people to help is desperate, it is reported. Individuals who are interested in working with disabled children or adults are urged to contact the PARCA office at 1838 El Camino Real, Suite 214, Burlingame.

Help Wanted

Several agencies have requested volunteer assistance from the Volunteer Bureau/Voluntary Action Center of San Mateo County, with offices in Burlingame, Daly City and Redwood City.

The local telephone number for area residents is 992-0957, an answering service. Residents may also call the main office in Burlingame at 342-0801, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

FEINGOLD ASSOCIATION OF THE BAY AREA — This voluntary organization devoted to the education and support of parents wishing to follow an additive-free nutrition program for their children, is seeking volunteers to assist with public speaking, public relations, publicity, clerical and telephone work and fund-raising. The work would be done in your own home and complete orientation and training is provided for interested men and women.

MENTAL HEALTH ASSOCIATION — Friendship Centers, a social rehabilitation program for individuals with mental or emotional difficulties, is seeking volunteers to help provide a supportive atmosphere for recreational and social activities. Volunteers are needed at the Friendship Center in San Bruno on Tuesday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Training and direction are provided.

SUICIDE PREVENTION AND CRISIS CENTER — Interviews for volunteers interested in staffing the 24-hour crisis line are now being held for the next training session. Bright, sensitive and caring people are needed to staff the line for four hours, once a week.

Additional information about these and other volunteer opportunities can be obtained by contacting the Volunteer Bureau at the telephone numbers listed above or by dropping by the main office in Burlingame, located at 119 Primrose Road, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. Interviews will be made in Daly City by appointment.

Jewish Life Issues

Who is responsible for the current state of affairs in the Jewish Community?

Are we content with the way things are going, of is it time for a change? How do we effect that change?

Would it come from the professionals of the Jewish communal agencies or from the lay workers and volunteer committee people?

These concerns will be addressed in a series of six dialogues on Controversial Issues in Jewish Life.

The program will be Dec. 4 at 7 p.m. at the Brotherhood Way Jewish Community Center, 655 Brotherhood Way.

The topic for this program is "Lay and Professional Roles in American Jewish Community Organization: Who Calls the Shots?"

Participants will be Ernie Siegel, director of the Jewish Welfare Federation of Alameda and Contra Costa Counties, and Marian Lippman of the National Council of Jewish Women. Siegel is the former director of the Dallas, Texas, Jewish Community Center and director of the Association of Americans and Canadians in Israel, having lived in Israel for four years.

Mrs. Lippman served as chairman of the legislation committee and the Public Affairs Section of the National Council of Jewish Women, as well as vice president for education.

She was the state legislation chairwoman for California for the NCJW, following which she became chairwoman of the Urban Affairs Commission of the Jewish Community Relations Council. She also is a past president of the JCRC.

The remaining programs in this series, and the dates of presentation are:

December 18 — The Nature of Decision-Making in the American Jewish Community, Wayne Feinstein of the Jewish Welfare Federation, and Reynold Colvin, prominent San Francisco attorney.

January 8 — The Impact of Jews on the General American Society: Rita Semel of the Jewish Community Relations Council, and Fred Rosenbaum, director of the Lehrhaus Judiaca in Berkeley.

The series is co-sponsored by the Jewish Community Relations Council, the San Franciseo Community College District, and the Bureau of the Jewish Education.

For details, call 334-7474.

Service News

GRADUATES

An official at Lowry AFB, Colo., has announced the graduation of Airman Feliciano R. Marquez from the U.S. Air Force's automatic flight control systems specialist course conducted by the Air Training Command.

Marquez, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Feliciano L. Marquez Sr., 345 Oriente St., Daly City, is now trained to maintain aerospace ground support equipment, and will serve at Torrejon AB, Spain. Completion of the course earned the individual credit towards an associate in applied science degree through the Community College of the Air Force.

Airman Marquez is a 1976 graduate of Serramonte High School.

COMPLETE COURSE

Private Charles P. McEwing, son of Mrs. Pat Smith, 229 West Ridge, Daly City, recently completed the TOW Missile course at Ft. Benning, Ga.

The missile, a tube-launched, optically-tracked, wire command-link guided missile, is the Army's heavy anti-tank weapon.

TRAINED

Navy Fireman Recruit Gregory A. Moffatt, son of Robert B. Moffatt, 450 Westmoor, Daly City, has completed recruit training at the Naval Training Center, Recruit Training Command, San Diego.

During the eight-week training cycle, he studied general military subjects designed to prepare him for further academic and on-the-job training in one of the Navy's 85 basic occupational fields.

PROMOTED TO SERGEANT

OUT OF BOOT CAMP

Navy Airman John W. Gowen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gowen of 174 Crocker Ave., Daly City, has completed recruit training at the Naval Training Center, Recruit Training Command, San Diego.

Included in his studies were seamanship, close-order drill, Naval history and first aid.

A 1977 graduate of Serramonte High School, he joined the Navy in September, 1977

DISCUSSING PLANS

"That's the date," says Millie Dunow, assistant chairman, as she points to Dec. 2. On that day, the Franciscan Mobile Park Country Club will hold a Christmas cocktail party from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. It is for hospital staff, guild members and guests, and dancing is included. Seated is Jane Hillsman, chairman, and on the right is Sarah Kelechava, chairman of the event.

Free Concert in D.C.

The City Hall Rotunda will provide the setting for the Fourth Annual Holiday Concert Dec. 4, sponsored free for local residents by the City of Daly City.

The musical program will be presented jointly by the San Mateo County Choral Society and the Peninsula Barbershop Chorus. Each organization has approximately 50 members who will participate. There will also be a brass ensemble present, which will provide accompaniment for some of the musical arrangements.

The program will begin at 3 p.m. and will conclude at approximately 5 p.m. The musical program will consist of traditional Yuletide Carols, Christmas Music sung by the San Mateo County Choral Society, and Yuletide barbershop harmony sung by the Peninsula Barbershop Chorus. There will be light refreshments served following the concert.

Poetry Fair Plans Set

At this semester's College of San Mateo Poetry Fair, community poets as well as student poets and faculty poets will read their poems over an open mike Dec. 1, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the Student Lounge.

This event, the seventh annual Poetry Fair, again is sponsored by the District-wide Poetry Center and the Associated Students of the College of San Mateo.

Two Peninsula poets are scheduled to read some of their poems: Sister Mary Dominica McNamee of the College of Notre Dame and Paul Fericano of Millbrae.

Book Fair Slated

Skyline School PTA Book Fair will be from 2 to 3:15 p.m., Nov. 30-Dec. 2 and from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Dec. 3 in the multi-use room at Skyline School, Warwick and Christen, Daly City.

PTA chairmen Betty Martinez and Tammy Sereni want to help students discover the wonderful world of books. "Reading can be the difference between having a future and not having a future," they said.

The books available are moderately priced represent authors and subjects which interest young readers, and are available in hardback and paperback editions.

Books are not ordered but purchased on the spot. Proceeds from the book fair will help toward the purchase of Mr. Muscle for the school playground.

Private School's Open House

Lick-Wilmerding High School, a private, independent school in the area, will hold its annual open house. This is the evening when prospective parents and their children visit the campus.

The school will be open from 7:30 - 9:30 p.m. Dec. 7. The faculty and members of the student body will be available to answer questions. There will be demonstrations involving students working on their individual projects.

Lick-Wilmerding High School is located at 755 Ocean Ave., directly across the street from San Francisco City College.

Arts, Crafts Faire

An Arts and Crafts Faire at the Mormon Church at 245 Ludeman Lane, Millbrae, is scheduled Dec. 3 from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

One of the unique features of this event is the wide variety of different crafts which will be featured. Not only will there be a wide selection of quilts, hand knitted baby clothes, woven pillows and all sorts of other hand work items, but also dolls, doll houses, Christmas ornaments and decorations, wrought iron art deco, leather work, paintings, ceramics, plants and even an electronic game or two.

'Christmas Fiesta'

Theatre Flamenco of San Francisco will present its "Christmas Fiesta," a holiday celebration of Spanish dances to be given for one week only, Dec. 14-18, at the Marines' Memorial Theatre in San Francisco.

Two matinee performances on Dec. 17 and 18 will conclude with a pinata party especially for the children attending.

Tickets are available at the Geary Theatre Box Office and at all major ticket agencies.

Gordon Play Slated

"Years Ago," actress Ruth Gordon's nostalgic and charming comedy of domestic America, will be presented Dec. 8-11 at College of San Mateo under the direction of Robert Brauns.

Performances are scheduled for 8 p.m. on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, and 2 p.m. on Sunday, all in the college's Little Theatre. General admission is $2, CSM students $1.

OFFICER COMMENDED

No December Tryouts

Daly City Dolphins will not hold tryouts in December as the pool will be closed part of the month, according to Charlie Smithson of the Daly City Department of Recreation.

The next tryouts for the Daly City Dolphins will be Jan. 16 at 5 p.m. at the Westmoor High School Pool. All area youngsters can tryout for the swim team, which participates in local meets.

To qualify, simmers need only swim the length of the pool twice, using any stroke. There is no minimum age and the team's youngest swimmer is six years old.

Basketball Classic Set

Daly City High School's Basketball Yuletide Classic is scheduled to begin Dec. 19. This is the 16th year that the Daly City Recreation Department has sponsored the tournament.

The tournament is designed for high school students who do not play varsity, junior varsity, B's, or 130's basketball, and live or go to school in Daly City. Deadline for sign-ups will be Dec. 13 at 5 p.m.

For details call Charlie Smithson, recreation supervisor, at 992-5356 or Steve Geramoni, Community Center coordinator, at the Westlake Community Center, 145 Lake Merced Blvd., 992-1894.

"The time has come for renewal of faith in families . . . Too little attention and support are given to this hub of western civilization."
—Evelyn Mills Duvall

Believing that the family is the hub of Western civilization, President Carter, Governor Brown and numerous mayors have proclaimed the last week of November as a time to remember families.

It is a time to let your heart swell with what Tom Braden called a mixture of pride and affection, protectiveness and hope. It is a time to recognize with Dr. Betty Yorburg that the "nuclear" family will not only persist in the 21st century, it will be stronger than ever.

It is time to recognize with the sociologists who wrote in the most recent issue of the Encyclopedia Britannica — The modern family has a number of functions: "it provides its members with a place where they are met with affection, where, in theory, they are protected from the stress to which they are subjected in their work and in the community, where the devotion between husband and wife can be expressed and where they can have children and care for them."

"The writers affirm that these functions are becoming more important as the family gives less attention to other things." The Britannica lists as functions of the modern family such tasks as providing emotional or psychic security, companionship, physical security and sensual satisfaction.

All this leads to a conclusion phrased by Luther Woodward, the mental health specialist: "Family living is a springboard to a man's faith not only in himself, but also in whatever is beyond himself that he considers best and noblest, whether he call it God or the good society. Not only today but in the long tomorrows, the 'upward looking and the light' will spring from understanding, love and encouragement which we experienced in growing up in a family. The full spiritual values of family living will be realized only if we apply the ethics and spirit of the family to business and social relationships, both in immediate and international circles."

Evelyn Mills Duvall's book "Faith In Families" (Abingdon Press. $1.95) was copyrighted in 1970 to be one of the most widely read studies of the family as an institution in today's society. Beginning with the basic question, "What are families for?", Dr. Duvall examines every phase of family life. Her book constitutes one of the best she has produced during her long career as an authority on sex and family life.

"The Changing Family" by Betty Yorburg (Columbia, $9) is a scholarly study that outlines the basis for family life in America. With the benefit of science she examines family roles with emphasis on the basic values underlying husband-wife and parent-child relationships.

Tom Braden's "Eight Is Enough" (Random $7.95) inspired a popular TV program. In it the syndicated columnist articulates many thoughts and dreams, conflicts and emotions that arise and are dealt with by a 20th century family in a rapidly changing world.

Let us use National Family Week to realize as Mr. Braden did when he wrote, "What is a father (parent) for?"

"To make sure that his children have a chance to play their parts . . . to do his best to see that they grow up to be worthy of trust in whatever kind of world they're going to live in."

Paramedic Award to Mary's Help Hospital

Despite vehement objections by Kaiser Hospital in South San Francisco, the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors has named Mary's Help Hospital in Daly City as the North County's base medical facility for the county's paramedic program.

The supervisors also selected Mills Memorial Hospital in San Mateo and Sequoia Hospital in Redwood City to serve as base hospitals for the central and southern areas of the county respectively.

The board made its decision based on recommendations of a special committee, appointed to review the capabilities of county hospitals to train Medevac paramedics in the field and treat emergency room patients.

David Theone, director of the county's emergency services program, told the board that selecting three base hospitals was a difficult decision for the committee. The committee, he said, considered all eight hospitals in the county to be good medical facilities. But some are better than the others in terms of emergency room physician staffing and paramedic training programs.

Kaiser Hospital in South San Francisco was the only hospital to object to being passed over as a base facility.

James Lane, vice president of Kaiser Foundation Hospitals, cited the hospital's long-standing service to the South San Francisco paramedic team.

Lane said Kaiser was the only hospital in the county to willingly initiate base hospital services for the county's first paramedic program started in South San Francisco 2½ years ago.

He argued that South San Francisco paramedics had developed a good rapport with the emergency room staff at Kaiser and that that relationship should not be severed.

Businessmen, labor organizations, doctors, local politicians and clergymen told the supervisors they supported Mary's Help Hospital as the base facility for the North County.

The committee, Thoene said, selected Mary's Help because it offers better emergency room staffing and a better training program than Kaiser.

The supervisors' decision to select Mary's Help means that South San Francisco paramedics, who will continue to operate in the city, will be trained in base hospital procedures at the Daly City hospital.

The board agreed to bear the cost of the training for South San Francisco paramedics, because of the inconvenience the training would cause.

While paramedics were in training at Kaiser, they remained on call as firemen. When they train in Daly City, they will not be on call to respond to emergencies.

Voters to Decide on SSF City Offices Plan

South San Francisco's City Council has decided to allow the city's voters to decide if nearly $4 million should be spent to acquire and remodel the Value Giant building in the Buri Buri shopping center for use as city offices.

At a special study session recently, the council decided to bring in the voters on this issue and to place the expenditure of $3,965,000 on the March municipal ballot.

If the voters approve the issue in March, the 120,000-square-foot Value Giant building will house the police, fire and park and recreation departments and city council chambers.

If approved, the measure would call for a payment of $1,385,000 to Castle and Cooke, owners of Value Giant. An additional $2,580,000 would be spent to remodel both the building and the present police department, located behind City Hall, for use by the Department of Public Services.

Critics

Susie Sanders, about the strength of kitchen cabinets in rehabilitated homes "obviously inappropriate."

Pavellas, who defended himself at some length, said, "I am not hired by the city. I donate my time gratis. I work for all people of Original Daly City."

Pavellas suggested that an apology from Mrs. Powell "would be in order" but that he would not require one.

Pezzola said Mrs. Powell and Mrs. Aiello weren't around when ODCPA requested federal funding to be used in fixing up homes.

"Being an election year, they are just trying to run down Old Daly City," he added angrily.

Mayor pro tem William Schumacher said he is concerned that construction is underway on only one rehabilitation project.

"There seems to be some unnecessary delay," he said. "Things are not moving; they're crawling. It disappoints me a little, what's not going on."

But Councilmen McRobert Stewart and Victor Kyriakis said they are satisfied that the program is progressing.

"Arbitrary time limits are self-defeating," Kyriakis said. "Whether the construction starts this month or next month, we should be encouraged it has started."

"The program is well on its way," Stewart said. "If we have to answer nine questions each week by one person or 10, we take up staff time."

'Busy'—

The general plan update report, Costanzo said, is designed initially only to stimulate the Planning Commission's thoughts prior to study sessions and public hearings. The hearings are scheduled tentatively for sometime early next year.

"We hope," Costanzo told the Planning Commission recently, "that there will be a lot of changes you'll want to see (in the report)."

The city planner said each community or neighborhood group should be circumscribed by a network of freeways and/or arterial streets.

"This arterial 'ring' concept is designed to promote fluid traffic patterns, without attenuating residential, commercial or industrial order and stability within the city's commercial or neighborhood group-clusters," he said.

The intra-county arterial system, the planner added, would include Westborough, Hickey, Junipero Serra, Hillside and Airport boulevards and El Camino Real.

The local arterial system would use Callan, Gellert Oyster Point boulevards, King Drive, Mission Road, Grand, Spruce and Linden avenues, the projected East Canal Street and Harbor Way.

Pacifica Cable-TV

Mayor Sidney Lorvan said Pacifica could not act in time to have representation at hearings early in December.

The hearings are being held by two state agencies trying to determine whether the public believes the state and regional coastal zone commissions are operating efficiently.

Former planning commissioner George Edsel and several citizens accused the commissions of being insensitive to public needs, of wasting time and increasing the costs of projects in the coastal zone.

And, he added, the company is losing money every time it hooks up a new subscriber at present rates.

Mayor Pro Tem William Schumacher, who indicated he did not want to have a "general discussion" about rates at this point, said, "I'm not convinced the company needs or deserves a rate increase."

Councilman McRobert Stewart said Vista Grande has not "made it clear it has exhausted other resources."

Vista Grande serves most of the city, except Serramonte.

In other business, the council:

—Was presented by Finance Director C. Robert Green with a hefty financial report for the fiscal year which ended June 30. Green said 98 percent of the report was completed in-house and showed the city to be "in sound financial condition."

—Approved a 1977-78 capital outlay budget of $330,510 in gas tax construction projects $18,847 in storm drain construction and $87,930 in water utility fund projects.

—Postponed approval of contracts between the city and Daly City Scavenger Co. for garbage transfer station construction until Dec. 5. City Manager David Rowe said he is working this week to trim bid costs.

—Accepted a contribution of $5,000 for recreational purposes from the Fred and Carl Gellert Foundations.

—Approved on second readings an ordinance setting up a Civil Defense and Disaster Program and an ordinance which takes most regulations off political signs, in accordance with recent court decisions.

The chairman said the commission should move to make start-up arrangements with central dispatching in South San Francisco and with the telephone and utilities companies for reopening the station.

Johnson also expressed concern about the Broadmoor police cars, which he said, "Quite frankly, look like hell.

'Oh, Dad' at Serramonte

By JULIE SMITH

Serramonte High had a succesful homecoming Nov. 18. Most who went to the dance had a wonderful time and the band "Common Pleasure" did a good job.

The homecoming court included:

Serramonte's fall play is "Oh Dad, Poor Dad, Mamma Hung You in the Closet and I Am Feeling So Sad and Overtones."

Only a few tickets are left for the Dec. 1 matinee performance. There are many good seats left for Dec. 2 and 3.

The Senior class is selling candy canes for 15 cents each.

Seniors also are selling Regent sweaters for $20, slightly for for block or year. You can order your sweater at the cashier's office. If you order your sweater now, they will be delivered after Christmas.

The next M.I.C.E. (Music: It Concerns Everyone) meeting is Dec. 7 at 7:30 in the faculty room. New members are welcome.

Serramonte's California Scholarship Federation members attended U.C.-Berkeley on a field trip. Leaving Serramonte at 9 a.m., they toured from 10 to 11:30. From 11:30 to 1:00 they had lunch and free time, to go where ever they wanted on campus.

Some students visited the many libraries and some went shopping.

Many of the students plan to go to U.C.-Berkeley and this was a chance for them to see how the capus is like and to see everyday life on campus.

The Regent

Ram-blings

By STEVE KAUFMAN

This is my first column as Westmoor High School's new commissioner of publicity, and I am looking forward to a happy and productive term in office.

This year's student body officers are: Gary Robinson, president; Angela Rizzo, vice-president; Cris Tong, secretary; Seth Skootsky, treasurer; Lynda Schortgen, parliamentarian; Mike Rodriquez, commissioner of clubs; Kathy Bolton, commissioner of entertainment; Vickki Johnson, rally commissioner and myself.

It's been a busy two weeks at Westmoor. However, two major events have proved themselves to be among the most important.

First, was the succcessful homecoming dance and the election of a homecoming court. The dance, sponsored by the senior class, attracted over 250 persons.

Final vote for the court was taken during lunch periods.

The homecoming court: Kiki Verveniotis, queen (she is also the senior class president); Monica Theis, senior princess; Lenny Kollaros, junior princess; Nan Vides, sophomore princess, and Lucy Rodriguez, freshmen princess.

The nominees for the queen and princess were: Kiki Verveniotis, Donna Imsand, Monica Theis, Jennifer Wolff and Debbie Wooten; for junior princess, Linda Schortgen, Sarah Murray, Chris Parise and Lenny Kollaros; sophomores, Robin Lippi, Nan Vides, Valerie Bologna, Sue Starrin, Chris Browne, Cheryl Pearson and Rachelle Fernandez; freshmen, Ana Sanchez, Suzanne Hurtado, Lucy Rodriguez, Gina Messera and Patsy Karkazis.

The second important event was the "introduction" of Westmoor's own radio station, KRAM, to the Jefferson High School District board. On Nov. 22, they heard each of the disc jockeys and technicians, then viewed the station's broadcasting facilities.

With the board's approval, lunchtime broadcasts to the courtyard and cafeteria will be aired soon.

The station's DJs include Keith Harband, Anthony Fernandez, Angela Rizzo, Diane Ridge, Debby Lind, (Stormin') Normin Howard and myself. The project is directed by Frank Decoito.

The station will be FM stereo. One of the station's hardest workers, Paul Grosshans, has worked and fiddled with hundreds of wires, plugs and meters to create the high fidelity the station will provide. He is only a junior, but exhibits the knowledge and energy of one much older.

Westmoor's Jazz Band went to Ricky's Hyatt House in Palo Alto to play for the California Elementary Education Association. Among the highlights of that concert was the playing of solos by several of the band members.

The Student Morale Committee has come up with an idea to keep people enertained during lunches — intramurals. The first event will be three man hunch (three-on-three basketball). This will get both students and many teachers together just to have fun for the first time in a long time.

Westmoor's soccer team practices have begun and a practice game will be played on Dec. 1.

If anyone has any item for this column, write in care of Westmoor High School, or drop a note in the commissioner of publicity's box in the main office.

2-point Conversion Fails, Tigers Lose

A MILD MISMATCH

Hillsdale High running back Jim McNinch (30) goes up against Terra Nova defender Martin Hohe (6-3,230) and bulls for a short gain during Saturday night's Central Coast Section Region I playoff game at Burlingame Field. Hillsdale mounted a good running attack and won 22-20.

By CHRISTOPHER STAVE

As the fourth quarter waned, Hillsdale High football players on the sideline cast quick glances at the clock and muttered, "Come ON, baby, RUN."

They were worried about Terra Nova quarterback Mike Diaz. With good reason.

With a gift of nine seconds and a last chance he shouldn't have gotten, Diaz rifled a 15-yard fourth-down touchdown pass to Mike Mooney on the last play of the Central Coast Section Region I semifinal game Saturday night at Burlingame Field.

That brought the Tigers to within two, 22-20. Diaz tried to run for the two-point conversion, to force prep football's version of sudden death. But Hillsdale linebacker Vinny Roche tripped Diaz at the one yard line, and lineman Mark Cleaver made sure Diaz didn't fall forward to the goal line.

With the win, Mid-Peninsula League champion Hillsdale (7-3) earned the right to face West Catholic Athletic League titlist St. Francis (9-1-1) for the Region I crown Friday night at Burlingame.

Hillsdale's offense, which had sputtered at times throughout the regular season, did what it had to in the fourth quarter.

On the second play of the period Knight running back Jim McNinch powered four yards over the left side for the score that put Hillsdale ahead 19-14. Charlie Brown's 18-yard third down run had set up the score.

Terra Nova neared midfield and had a third and three on the next possession, but Knight linebacker Mike Matisi blitzed and pressured Diaz into an incompletion.

Hillsdale took over on its 19 with 8:06 left and, thanks largely to two key keepers by Jeff Metter, a 6-3 horse of a quarterback, ran out all but 1:19 of the clock. Terra Nova helped put the Knights in scoring position with a facemask penalty.

The Tigers stopped Hillsdale at the 10, but Knight sophomore Bob Bagneschi booted a 27-yard field goal for the eventual winning points.

Then Diaz went to work. The 6-2 senior, far and away the best passer in the county, had suffered a painful injury the week before, but started against Hillsdale and immediately proved that there was nothing wrong with his arm.

The Knights had held him in check; until that last drive TN had only 104 yards passing. But Diaz had a strong arm (almost too strong, since the two interceptions he suffered ricocheted off his receivers' shoulder pads) and a fine trio of targets in Mooney, Randy Peterson and tight end Joe Belli.

TN started its drive with 1:15 left. Diaz hit Mooney for 15. TN got a first down on an interference penalty. Diaz completed four straight then — to Peterson for 19, Mooney for 15, Belli for 12 and Mooney for five more.

That made it second and five at the Hillsdale 12.

Diaz dropped back to pass but Cleaver, a hero more than once that night, broke through to sack Diaz for a loss of six.

Terra Nova called its final time out with 0:16 remaining.

On third and 11 Diaz looked for the pass but then took off for the left sideline. Hillsdale's Ed Cook dragged Diaz down well inbounds after a gain of three, and the final nine seconds should have ticked away.

But officials stopped the clock. One was ready to give Hillsdale the ball, thinking Diaz had been stopped on fourth down, instead of third.

One official later said that an effort was made to restart the clock, but that the timer didn't see the signal. In any case, Terra Nova was allowed to come to the ball for one more play, and Diaz used the time for that last TD.

Terra Nova, the North Peninsula League co-champion, finished its season with a 9-2 record.

In both losses the Tigers wound up inside their opponents' one yard line. And in both losses, TN got an "extra" play (the Tigers got another chance in the Half Moon Bay game when a HMB player was injured, stopping the clock).

Before the game, there was speculation on two counts: (1) would Hillsdale's offense be able to move at all, keeping the ball away from Diaz, and (2) would Hillsdale's fine defense, which had not worked much against the pass all year, be able to stop Diaz?

After all, in an early-season nonleague game, Terra Nova had beaten Hillsdale 14-0.

The answer to both questions was, yes.

Hillsdale took control of the game early. On its second possession the Knights drove 52 yards to score. Key plays on the drive were Metter's 17-yard screen pass to Jim McNinch and Metter's 14-yard keeper on third and 10 at the TN 25.

Metter got the last five yards himself, rambling to the right and leaping into the corner of the end zone.

Early in the second quarter a Hillsdale trick backfired; after a completed pass, the Knight receiver lateraled directly into the arms of Terra Nova defender Mike Prouix, who carried 10 yards to the Knight 19. Two plays later Diaz tossed a center screen pass to Belli for a 19-yard TD.

Momentum shifted completely to Terra Nova's side. A change of possession later, Diaz hit Peterson for 50 yards, and three plays after that tossed a nine-yard TD pass to Mooney. Dennis Sadlowski added another conversion for a 14-7 lead.

With just 2:22 left in the half, Hillsdale managed to regain some momentum after getting good field position on a short kickoff.

An on-the-money long TD pass was dropped, but Metter hit running back Brown for 14 yards, and then completed the most unlikely pass of the game.

Metter called for a counter pass, intended for a receiver coming over the middle. But Terra Nova's pass rush was intense. Just before going down, Metter turned to the right and flipped the ball in desperation to Cleaver.

Cleaver had been minding his own business, and never expected to see the ball. But that play had been broken before during the season, and Metter had found a secondary receiver before. Cleaver, a 6-4 junior, bulled his way 23 yards to the TN four.

Metter scored on the next play, leaping to paydirt again. Hillsdale trailed 14-13 at the half.

Once Hillsdale regained the momentum, it never lost it again till the final minute, when Diaz was making mincemeat of a five-man secondary.

Hillsdale completely shut off Terra Nova's running game, allowing just 31 yards. Overall, Hillsdale outgained TN 247 to 207, and ran 13 more plays.

Metter was Hillsdale's leading rusher with 67 yards, and passed for 58 more; he also fielded those two Diaz ricochets for interceptions. Hillsdale's running was balanced. Brown picked up 65 yards on nine carries, and McNinch got 47.

Diaz completed 11 of 25 for 176 yards and three TDs.

A sour note: Jeff Pyburn, one of Hillsdale's top defensive linemen, suffered a knee injury (dislocated kneecap and ligament damage) and will miss the rest of the season.

Hillsdale-TN Yardstick

Terra Nova	0 14 0 6	—20
Hillsdale	7 6 0 9	—22

Scoring: H — Metter 5 run (Glover kick); TN — Belli 19 pass from Diaz (Sadlowski kick); TN — Mooney 9 pass from Diaz (Sadlowski kick); H — Metter 4 run (kick failed); H — McNinch 4 run (pass failed); H — 27 FG; TN — Mooney 15 pass from Diaz (run failed).

'Mr. Baseball,' Al Erle to Be Honored

There are a lot of activities coming up, not all necessarily sporting activities, but certainly activities for sports.

One of the biggies is the one honoring Al Erle on Dec. 7 at the San Francisco Athletic Club.

Lefty O'Doul and Joe Dimaggio and all the other legendary big names notwithstanding, Al Erle is in truth Mr. Baseball in San Francisco. No, extend that to the entire Bay Area. Better make it Northern California. Now 94 years of age, Erle, a sporting goods salesman by profession and a baseball man for love, booked sandlot baseball games from Eureka to Fresno to Reno for more than half a century, until he retired from booking and selling sporting goods in 1971. For most of those years, until bush league baseball began dying in the 1960s, Erle was booking at least 100 games a week.

NOW THE still vital Erle is being feted at Dante Benedetti's Annual Baseball Fund dinner by some of baseball's biggest names (show up at the dinner and be surprised — even shocked — at the attending roster). As usual, all profits from the dinner will go towards financing various amateur baseball programs.

Price per ticket is $20. Cocktail hour will begin at 7 p.m. and continue until the majority of the participants get hungry.

Tickets may be purchased at Harpo's in Westlake, at the New Pisa Restaurant at 550 Green St., San Francisco, or by calling Frank Strazullo at 589-4413 before 5 p.m., or at 756-3198 after 6 p.m.

ANOTHER big event is the Mission High School Alumni Homecoming, on Friday, Dec. 2, to celebrate the re-opening of the school, which was dismantled five years ago to comply with the Field Act Rehabilitation program for earthquake paranoia.

The affair is just one more in a perennial series of such gatherings which offer wonderful excuses for Mission alumni to have parties two or three times a year. There is a current rumor that the next celebration will commemorate the year Johnny Swanson decided not to wear a toupee.

Technically, the Homecoming is not a sports affair, but there are definite athletic overtones — and even undertones — to it.

Bill Mustanich the former Commerce High (ugh!) and Santa Clara catcher, and once the Misson baseball coach, has been running the alumni program for years, a labor of love he inherited from another former Mission baseball coach, George Wolfman, who had started the whole alumni party thing as a mere baseball alumni gathering at the school cafeteria 30 years ago.

This will be the usual Mustanich extravaganza, with searchlights dotting the famed Mission tower and a new flagpole.

BEGINNING AT 10 a.m. on Dec. 2, Dr. Robert F. Alioto, Superintendent of Schools, will re-dedicate the school. From 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. there will be a tour of the building. At 7:30 alumni will meet in assigned areas according to their graduation class. There will follow at 8:30 an assembly-rally complete with entertainment and M.C.'d by Frances McAteer, widow of the honorable Eugene McAteer (both Mission grads), and John Vick, another former Missionite and a radio and TV announcer and movie actor.

An admission fee of $5 will be charged to help defray the cost of the new flagpole, which has been donated by the Alumni Association, and miscellaneous printing and mailing costs. Surplus monies will go to the Mission Alumni Scholarship Fund.

Ticket locations are at Mission High; the Westlake Bowl; Les Vogel Chevrolet; the Seven Hills Restaurant and the Miraloma Club.

LEFT-OVER tickets will be sold at the door, but left-over tickets is an unlikely possibility, so get them now. If you can't attend but would like to send a donation, make your check payable to the Mission High School Alumni Association and send it to Mustanich at Mission.

Mustanich, incidentally, is retiring from education soon, and has already guarded his pension against inflation by recently opening a Chinese restaurant called

Le Pacini

Alice's Restaurant, on Judah Street near 9th Avenue in San Francisco. Mustanich's biggest problem is trying to find Chinese baseball stars to sit in the window.

While we're still on Mission alumni who do good works, let's keep in mind that Johnny Swanson of Westlake Bowl fame probably keeps more kids off the streets than Farrah Fawcett-Majors, although his poster will never sell as well.

Swanson's junior bowling program has a current signup of better than 2,000 youngsters.

ONE OF the extra-nice things about Johnny's program is that ALL kids who participate — not just the winners — get plaques and trophies imprinted with their best individual game scores and their best series scores of each season.

And while we're on youth bowling, some catching up on some of the top local bowlers from last season who were written up in the national official magazine published by the American Junior Bowling Congress, "Junior Bowler."

Cindy Mason of San Mateo bowled the 4th and 5th best individual series among the nation's senior girls, 641 and 635, as well as the 5th best individual series, 717.

Junior boys' champ Bill Wood of San Bruno had a best individual series, 645.

TWO LOCAL bantam boys, Donald LaMure of San Bruno and Matt Dailey of Pacifica, had best individual games, respectively, of 235 and 226.

Another outstanding local senior girl was Nancy Almadova of Daly City, who had 637 series.

OTHER LOCAL NOTES:

Former Terra Nova southpaw standout Steve Shirley, has been added to the L.A. Dodger 40 man roster.

San Francisco State's John Moreno (also formerly of Terra Nova and Skyline College) recently became state's first cross-country All-American by finishing 20th at the NCAA Division II Championships in Oak Brook, Illinois.

A senior, Moreno had a time of 30:56 in the 10,000 meter course, as he ran in competition with 211 runners.

BRIEF COMMENT: Leon Spinks' management is absolutely nuts matching him so early in his career with the likes of Muhammad Ali. The former Olympic heavyweight champ is too small for Ali, but more important, not nearly experienced enough.

After sweeping through his first five opponents (read that stiffs), he's now had two tough fights against opponents who possibly wouldn't be adequate sparring partners for Ali. Scott Ledoux, who is strictly a bum (I wouldn't label him a good club fighter) held Spinks to a draw, while Italian import Alfio Righetti, admittedly a much classier fighter than LeDoux, baffled Spinks — despite a close and possibly controversial lost decision — with good counter-punching. If Righetti could break an egg with his fists, he would have knocked Spinks out.

Skyline Wins Tourney

OROVILLE — Skyline College has started off the 1977-78 basketball season just the way it ended the last campaign — by winning a tournament.

And in the process the Trojans have taken over the state win streak leadership at 12 games.

The defending Division II (small college) state champions took care of host Butte, 78-65, Saturday night to sweep the Butte College classic. Butte was also Skyline's first-round victim in last season's state tournament.

Meanwhile Cerritos ended the 22-game skein of reigning Division I champion Cypress over the weekend, leaving Skyline with the only substantial win streak in the state.

Returning guard Ted Scott led Skyline in the two games at Butte, scoring 46 points, including 24 against the Roadrunners.

"We kind of dominated both games," Trojan coach Lyle Newcomer admitted. "And we won the boards both nights."

Skyline out-rebounded Butte 37-20 as the 5-11 Scott took down 19 in the tourney (11 in the Friday night win over Cosumnes River, 80-67).

Trojan frosh center Brad Levesque (6-6) from St. Ignatius and Daly City was the leading scorer against Butte with 25 and joined Scott and Jason Malinowski on the all-tournament team.

Malinowski had 22 assists in the tourney, 14 in the finals (to just miss Nick Papageorge's Trojan school record of 15).

Skyline plays the St. Mary's JV Tuesday at 5 p.m. in Moraga (a preliminary to the Doanne College game) in a late addition to the schedule and will partake in the De Anza Festival Classic Friday and Saturday in Cupertino.

Dolphins Slate Team Tryouts

Daly City Dolphins Aquatic Team tryouts are next scheduled for Dec. 15,at 5 p.m. at the Westmoor Pool, according to Swim Coach Chip Zimmerman.

Area youngsters, no minimum age, who can swim two laps of the Westmoor Pool, using any stroke, can qualify. Upon qualification, full information on the two-week trial-adjustment period will be given to parents.

Practice for team members is Monday through Friday, 5-7 p.m. at the Westmoor Pool. Swimmers participate in many local meets as well as daily practice.

The Daly City Dolphins Swim Team is sponsored by the Daly City Recreation Department, with Charles E. Vincent, director.

Magic Show By Scouts

Cub Scouts and Webelos held a November pack meeting at Serra Vista elementary School.

The meeting opened with opening ceremony. Then Boys in Den 6 put on a Magic Show.

The boys are: Wolf Brian Thiessen, Wolf Troy Sweetman, Wolf Eric Orton, Wolf Edwin Paras, Wolf Jeff Hollderson, Wolf Tony Ormando, and Bobcat Jason Duncan.

Boys in Den 6 and Den 3 were up for awards, including: Paul Stallard, who received his Bobcat; Edwin Paras and Tony Ormando received gold arrows; Tony Ormando also received three silver arrows, along with him Jeff Hollderson received three sivler arrows; Brian Thiessen received two silver arrows; Eric Orton and Brian McLamb received a silver arrow; Kevin Duncan and Jason Frey received perfect attendance pins; and Ralf Herrera, Brian McLamb and Donovan Oryall received year pins.

Boys in Den 2 put on an Indian Skit as part of the November theme. They were: Bobcat Kevin Regudon, Bobcat Michael Bollier, Bobcat Sean Kerrisk, Bobcat Darren Berger, and Webelos Paul Perrone from Den 1 who substituted for Bobcat James Vickers who was sick. The boys wore indian costumes which they made themselves.

Scout Team Sets Meet

The Daly City Girl Scout Service Team will meet Dec. 5 at 7:30 p.m. at 88 Woodside Drive, according to Daly City Association Chairman Mrs. Mary Ann Dale.

Pedigree Cat Show

The Airport Marina Hotel's Grand Ballroom in Burlingame will be the setting, in Christmas theme, for a Pedigree Cat Show hosted by the Highlanders Cat Club, a peninsula club affiliated with The Cat Fanciers' Associaition, Inc., the largest cat association in the world.

On Dec. 3 shorthair cats and kittens will be presented in judging competition, and on Dec. 4, Longhair cats and kittens will be presented.

The Shorthair cats will include such breeds as Abyssinians, Manx, Exotics, Burmese, Japanese Bobtail, Siamese and others, while the Longhair cats will include Balinese, Persian, Angora, Himalayan and others. All total, there will be approximately 16 different breeds in dozens of colors competing in this championship display.

Judges sanctioned by the National Association, have been contracted from Oklahoma, Oregon and California to officiate at the show and will award deserving cats and kittens trophies and scoring points for both regional and national wins within the association and other national breed clubs.

Rock Christmas Musical

"First Energy," the vocal and instrumental youth ensemble of the Westlake Community Baptist Church, will present the Rock Christmas musical "Get Ready" by Larry Mayfield in the 10:50 a.m. Worship Service, Dec. 11, directed by Jack Palmer.

Pastor Grady Higgs also will give a sermon on the well adjusted family.

Art Prints Available

A wide selection of framed art prints is available for loan at the Pacifica Library. The current selection circulates for a six-week period to adult borrowers.

The collection offers reproductions of works originally done in other media uch as oil or watercolor as well as original prints. Among the original prints are selections created by well-known San Franciscan, Henry Evans, who specialized in botanical prints.

Reproductions range from cave paintings to work by 19th century French painter, Fragonard, and impressionist Van Gogh. Also in the current collection are works by American artists, Andrew Wyeth and Edward Hicks.

Art collections change at least once a year, and those available at this time are on display at Pacifica Library.

The Sanchez Library has acquired a group of reference books on the care and raising of fuchsias. These were donated by the Pacifica Branch of the American Fuchsia Society. They will be available for public use in a few weeks after being catalogued at library headquarters.

Loyola Guild to Meet

Loyola Guild's final meeting of the year will be Dec. 2 at 1:45 p.m. in the University Center Lounge.

The Advisory Board will meet at 1 p.m. in room 413.

Rev. William O. Richardson will be the guest speaker, and a special Christmas tea will follow the meeting.

Auction to Benefit Beaches

Raising money to clean Pacifica's beaches is the goal of the city's Youth Advisory Commission at its "Youth in Action" auction on Nov. 30, Dec. 1 and 2.

The auction, which will be broadcast on the local cable television station, will be held from 7 to 10 p.m. each day.

Among the auctioneers are City Manager Donald Weidner, Fire Chief Cal Hinton, Supervisor Fred Lyon, Councilwoman Janice Fulford and Councilmen Mark Savage and Stanley Farber.

Proceeds from the auction are used to hire local youths to clean the beaches in the summer. Recreation Supervisor Donald Cadman said the project is the only organized beach cleaning program in Pacifica.

A thousand 45 rpm records will be auctioned during the three-day event, along with many other items. Those who wish to donate things should call Cadman at Pacifica City Hall, 355-4151.

Chapter to Meet

The next regular meeting of Xi Lambda Sigma Exemplar chapter of Beta Sigma Phi will be Dec. 5 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Frantz Cox, Pacifica.

The cultural program entitled "Isadora Duncan" will be presented by Virginia Sheridan, South San Francisco.

Ways and Means chairman Jean Sprouse, South San Francisco, will report on the recent benefit boutique, proceeds from which are earmarked for the Kidney Foundation and Cystic Fibrosis.

NELL NORTON

Good morning, good cooks.

I guess we've all had the experience of finding some bananas that we've kept longer than we intended and it's "use them today or forget them" time.

Having reached that time last week, I searched through my recipes and baked two banana treats.

BANANA-WALNUT COOKIES

1½ cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
¼ teaspoon soda
½ teaspoon salt
1½ teaspoons cinnamon
1 cup firmly packed brown sugar

2/3 cup soft shortening
1 egg
¼ cup milk

1 cup mashed bananas
½ cup chopped walnuts
2 cups rolled oats (quick or old-fashioned, uncooked)

Sift the one and one-half cups flour, one teaspoon baking powder, one-fourth teaspoon soda, half teaspoon salt and one and one-half teaspoons cinnamon in a mixing bowl. Add the one cup brown sugar, two-thirds cup shortening, one egg, fourth cup milk and cup mashed bananas. Beat until smooth, about 2 minutes. Stir in the half cup chopped walnuts and two cups rolled oats.

Drop by teaspoonfuls onto greased cookie sheets. Bake in 375-degree oven 12 to 15 minutes. Makes five dozen.

BANANA BREAD

1 cup sugar

½ cup shortening
2 eggs
2¼ cups flour
½ teaspoon salt
¾ teaspoon soda
½ teaspoon baking powder
¼ cup sour milk
1 cup mashed bananas (3 smal or 2 large bananas)
1 teaspoon vanilla

½ cup chopped walnuts

Cream the one cup sugar and half cup shortening. Beat the two eggs lightly and add to creamed mixture. Stir in the one cup mashed bananas. Sift the two and one-fourth cups flour, half teaspoon salt, three-fourths teaspoon soda and half teaspoon baking powder and add to creamed mixture alternately with fourth cup sour milk. Add teaspoon vanilla and chopped walnuts.

Pour into greased loaf pan, 9x5x3-inches. Bake in 350-degree oven about 60 minutes, or until it tests done with a toothpick.

Cool in pan 10 minutes. Remove and cool completely before slicing.

FINE ARTS

.Sing-Along Scheduled

The second annual "Messiah" Sing-Along concert will be Dec. 11 at 8 p.m. at Capuchino High School auditorium. The program is under the direction of Dr. Marietta Tassos, conductor of the San Mateo County Choral Society. This group will act as a nucleus choir for the performance and all singers are urged to bring their scores and join in the singing of this favorite Handel work.

There will a 20-piece orchestra, including tympani and organ, and vocal soloists from the Bay Area will be featured in the recitatives and arias. These include Sally Evinger, soprano; Doreen Hart, soprano; Mary Griffin, soprano; Betty Lou McAllister, soprano; Diane Marcal, contralto; Peter Lewis, tenor and Richard Compton, bass.

The Choral Society also will join with the Peninsulars in a Christmas concert at the Daly City Civic Center, 90th and Sullivan streets in Daly City, Dec. 4 at 3 p.m. One of the featured numbers will be Ave Maria for Choir and Flute Solo by Steve Makara, a young Hillsborough poet and composer; it will be a premier performance of his work. This concert will include music for choir, brass ensemble, percussion and organ and is being co-sponsored by the City of Daly City. Both concerts are open to the public free.

Seating is limited in Daly City, so those attending should plan to come early. Ample parking space will be available at both concerts.

German Play Slated

The Julian Theatre of San Francisco will present three performances of a workshop production of West German playwright Botho Strauss' "The Hypochondriacs" in December.

Under the sponsorship of the Goethe Institute of Munich and San Francisco, "The Hypochondriacs" is being translated for this United States premiere by Robert Goss of Oakland, who co-scripted with Carl Weber, Bertolt Brecht's "The Messingkauf Dialogues" at Epic West.

Performances will be part of the Julian Theatre's New and Experimental Theatre Series at 3 p.m. Dec. 10 and 11 at the Julian's home in the Potrero Hill Neighborhood House, 953 De Haro St., and again in the Lurie Room of the Main Branch of the San Francisco Public Library, Larkin at McAllister, on Dec. 14, at 7 p.m.

Admission to the Potrero Hill performances is $1.50 donation, free at the main library.

Sitar Music Program

The Burlingame Poetry conspiracy, with the assistance of the Multicultural Program of the San Mateo County Arts Council, will present a program of Sitar music from north India and translations from Sanskrit poetry in the Community Room of the Burlingame Public Library, 480 Primrose Road, beginning at 3 p.m. Dec. 18.

Sitar master and leader of the group is Richard Garneau of Kentfield, a disciple of Ali Akbar Khan. He has performed at local concert halls, colleges, on television and in concert with Maestro Ali Akbar Khan.

The poetry will consist of translations from Sanskrit epics and animal-story poems made and read by Bruce Higgins of Burlingame, a student of philosophy and linguistics at San Francisco State University.

'Savage' at Crestmoor

John Patrick's "The Curious Savage" has been selected to open the 1977-78 season of Crestmoor Little Theatre in San Bruno Dec. 8-10, under the direction of Robert Meadows. Performances will begin at 8 p.m.

This Broadway hit was first produced in New York by the Theatre Guild and Lewis & Young on Oct. 24, 1950, starring Lillian Gish in the title role.

Appearing in the role originated by Miss Gish is Laura Wickham, in her first role for Crestmoor. Major roles are also played by Sharon Fournier as Fairy May, Phillip Jennings as Senator Titus Savage, and Michael Press as Hannibal.

With scene design by Peter Kokalis and lighting by Andrew Kilday, this comedy features the contrast between the gentle inmates of "The Cloisters" and the inhabitants of the insane outside world. Also appearing in the cast are Claudia English, William Gilmour, Celiene O'Hara, Robert Spacher, Evelyn Eason, Tim Hanlon and Trudi Eason.

For reservation or ticket information, call 583-1480, ext. 228, or 873-5831. Crestmoor Little Theatre is located at Crestmoor High School, 300 Piedmont Ave., San Bruno.

Christmas Treasures Boutique

Hundreds of original artistic creations ranging from large handcrafted pottery to miniature tree ornaments are available in the fourth annual Christmas Treasures benefit boutique.

The sale lasts through Dec. 15 at the San Mateo County Arts Council, 1219 Ralston Ave., Belmont. All items are priced under $50. Sale hours are from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays.

Scores of items have been contributed to the sale by 22 local artists and craftsmen. Thirty percent of the proceeds will be donated to the Arts Council's county-wide gallery system.

Among the items featured this year are ceramic figurines, paper mache plaques, rag rugs in assorted sizes and colors, hand thrown pottery of all types, children's furniture, elegant stained glass vases and the nearly lost art of needle-point Christmas tree ornaments.

So many items are offered, that the boutique fills two ground floor rooms of the Arts Council's Cultural Center in Twin Pines Park, two blocks west of El Camino Real in Belmont.

Artists who have contributed to the Christmas Treasures benefit boutique are from seven cities in the county.

From Daly City, JoAnne Lohse assembled a display of many paper mache plaques, old fashioned stoves and many natural life treatments in decorations for the home.

Soroptimist Benefit

Soroptimist International of San Francisco, a classified service club of professional and executive women which annually raises funds for special senior citizens' projects, will focus this year's benefit event around the American Conservatory Theater's Dec. 17 matinee of Charles Dickens' "A Christmas Carol."

Orchestra seat tickets for the celebration, which will be followed by a champagne reception in the sixth floor auditorium of the downtown San Francisco Emporium, are available through the organization at $12 each. Keeping with the holiday spirit, gift tickets may also be purchased for distribution to senior citizens.

For details call 731-2446.

'Sam' Set at Terra Nova

Terra Nova's school play, "Play It Again, Sam," will be staged Dec. 8-10 in the school cafetorium.

Curtain time for each performance is 8 p.m. Tickets are $1 with a student body card and $1 without.

The play is about a young man's attempt to be successful with women.

Single Parent Dinner and Discussion

A single parent family dinner and discussion group meeting will be held from 6:30-9 p.m., Dec. 7 at the Brotherhood Way Jewish Community Center.

"Whether you're single, newly-separated or have been independent for awhile, have custody of your children or not — male or female — you're welcome here," Doug Lehrman, a spokesman for the club said.

The evening's discussion, following dinner, will be "Your Expectations of the Opposite Sex," led by Lehrman, who is Brotherhood Way's Single Parent Program coordinator.

Where do you meet the kind of person you'd like to know? Do you even know the kind of person you'd like to meet? Quantity versus quality in dating. "These are some of the areas we'll explore," Lehrman said.

For details, contact Lehrman at 334-7474.

Festival at Jewish Center

A Chanukah Festival will be held Dec. 4, from 1-4 p.m., at the Brotherhood Way Jewish Community Center.

The free festival will feature food, fun, games and entertainment for all age groups, according to spokesman Doug Lehrman.

Strange Events at 'The Weasel's' Home

By RICK SULLIVAN

For months Moss Beach neighbors of Aladena "Jimmy The Weasel" Fratianno had whispered among themselves that their shy, almost reclusive neighbor appeared to be involved in shady dealings.

The white, late-model Cadillac parked in the driveway at 400 California Ave.; the early morning and late night visits by "tough looking" three-piece-suited men; the front lawn arguments; and the regular jaunts to a nearby pay telephone. They all reminded the neighbors of a late-night re-run of "The Untouchables."

So when Fratianno surrendered to FBI agents in San Francisco Wednesday on federal charges of extortion and conspiracy, the neighbors raised hardly an eyebrow.

"Strange men in new suits came to the house at different times," related Harry Leonard, who resides across the street from the reputed Mafia chieftan. "I kind of thought something was strange over there," he said pointing to the unpretentious pale yellow house.

And, added Judy Lyman, another neighbor: "The car that he drove, the way that he dressed, the way that he acted, just didn't fit into this (rural country) area. He never took walks, he just kind of kept to himself. I sort of suspected that he was involved in some strange things."

The FBI believes so too. Indictments were handed down Tuesday in Los Angeles charging Fratianno and four Southern California men with extortion in connection with racketeering and pornographic material. According to FBI agents, Fratianno was the "boss" of an alleged extortion ring operating out of his home in Moss Beach.

The FBI alleges that Fratianno and his subordinates made extortion demands on the FBI undercover company called Forex, which dealt with the acquisition and transportation of pornographic films.

The company, according to agents, made payments to Fratianno associates totalling $7,500. The Forex Co. operated out of Van Nuys.

Neighbors said that Fratianno would leave his home one day and sometimes not return for several weeks. They said he lives with a girl named Jean — Some 30 years his junior. Jean, they said, never attempted to be neighborly.

Leonard recalled that about two weeks ago two men dressed neatly in suits visited Fratianno's house. They repeatedly knocked on the door, he said, but there was no answer.

Mrs. Lyman also saw the men. She said she believes they were the "good guys," presumably FBI agents.

For many months prior to that visit, other men came to the house. These men, Mrs. Lyman considered not to be agents.

"These were real tough looking men who, by the way that they dressed and the cars that they drove, looked kind of like members of the mob," she said.

She and another neighbor, Ted Vercelas, said there were always late model cars and sometimes vans driving up to the house.

Fratianno often would come outside his house to greet them, other times he would not come out and the men would drive away.

Mrs. Lyman remembered an argument Fratianno had with another man on his front lawn.

"I was walking home from the grocery store, when I noticed that Mr. Fratianno and another man were arguing.

"As I walked by them, I heard Mr. Fratianno say, 'I don't want to talk about it.' And then the other man said 'I'm in trouble and I've got to get out of it.' Then Mr. Fratianno said 'I'm sorry I should have checked things out better before I ordered you to do it'."

Mrs. Lyman said that the strange man "was really mad."

On another occasion Mrs. Lyman said she was walking out of a nearby market when she saw Fratianno dressed in a jogging outfit, get out of his Cadillac and enter a pay telephone booth.

"I thought it was kind of strange that a man should drive his car a half a block to use a pay telephone. The incident just sort of stuck in my mind," she said.

Although Mrs. Lyman never talked with Fratianno, she did know the prior owner of the reputed mobster's house. He was Dennis McDonald, a Hayward attorney, who, she said, now resides in Oakland.

She said she was unsure whether Fratianno purchased or leased the house from McDonald.

It was McDonald who accompanied Fratianno to the San Francisco FBI office Wednesday morning.

He was arraigned before U.S. Magistrate Richard C. Goldsmith on charges of extortion. Goldsmith gave Fratianno until the afternoon to pay $5,000 to guarantee his $50,000 bail. He remained free.

McDonald reportedly stated that he represented Fratianno only for the surrender and that the suspect expected to retain a Los Angeles attorney to fight the charges.

According to FBI sources, the 64-year-old Fratianno is a leading organized crime figure in California. A 1969 U.S. Senate rackets subcommittee report said Fratianno had been involved in narcotics, gambling, labor violence and gangland murders.

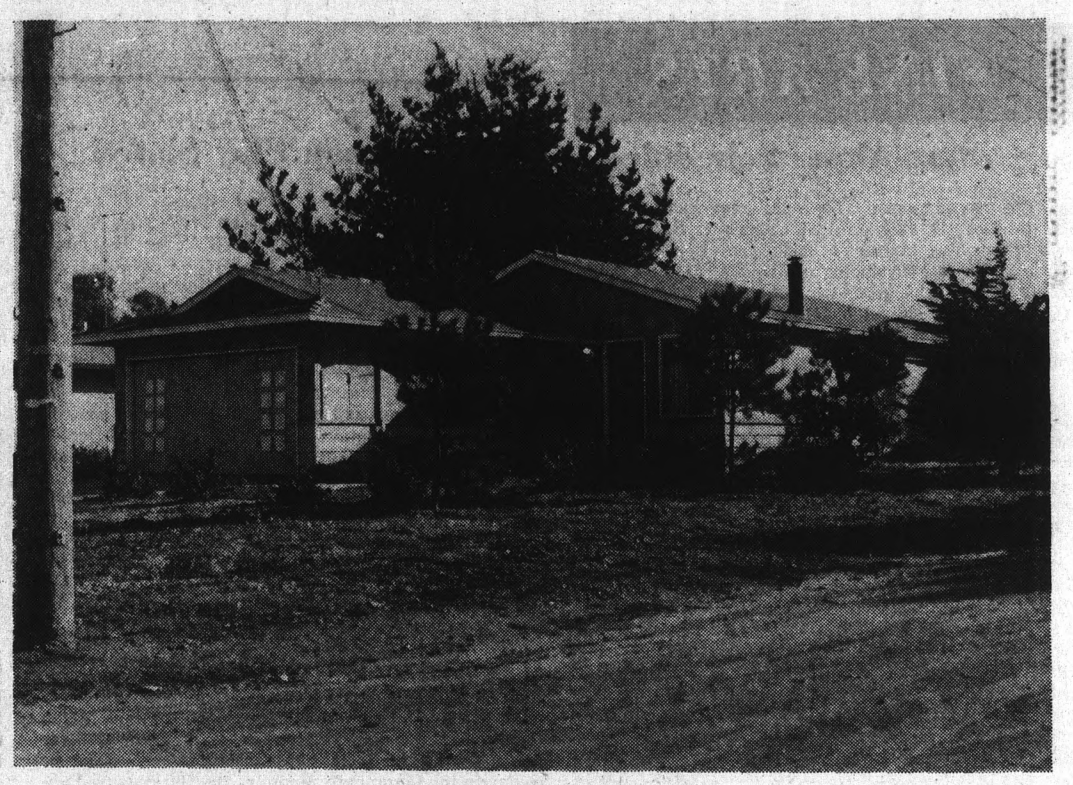
Fratianno is a native of Naples, Italy. He retained the nickname "Weasel" from a police officer in Cleveland, Ohio.

He has spent 17 years of his life in prison. In 1937 he was convicted and sentenced for robbery in Ohio.

Fratianno was convicted of two separate extortion charges in California — in 1954 and 1971.

He moved to Moss Beach about two years ago from Hayward where San Mateo County Sheriff's Office officials said he operated a trucking business.

Recently he opened a women's clothing store in San Francisco.



MAFIA LEADER'S HOME

This home in Moss Beach was the scene of many unusual meetings and events, neighbors said.

Bid to Release Timmons Fails

An attorney's request that accused kidnapper Scott Timmons be released from jail on his own recognizance was turned down by Central District Municipal Court Judge Phrasel Shelton,

Timmons, 19, was arrested on charges of kidnapping Niels Legallet, 11, of Burlingame. The Legallet boy was found unharmed in a Menlo Park motel room.

Judge Shelton heard attorneys argue for and against the release of Timmons before concluding the charges were too serious to release the suspect from jail on his own recognizance.

However, Judge Shelton did agree to reduce the $200,000 bail he previously set for Timmons to $100,000.

Jack Baptista, director of a local "release on their own recognizance" project, told the court he had investigated the suspect and decided Timmons should be released from jail on his own recognizance.

Baptista noted that Timmons has lived in this area for 13 years, was employed at the time of his arrest and has no prior criminal history. (Baptista said he did find two traffic warrants for Timmons, one warrant was for speeding and the second for driving a vehicle without a driver's license.)

In his final arguments for the release of Timmons, defense attorney Robert Kane said no weapons were used in the alleged kidnapping and the Burlingame boy was not injured.

Kane said that if the court agreed to release Timmons, the suspect would move into the Belmont home of his parents who would make sure their son made all his scheduled appearances in court.

Deputy District Attorney William Amideo cited the "very serious offense" and argued against the release of Timmons. Amideo also asked Judge Shelton to leave bail at $200,000.

Judge Shelton agreed to the "seriousness of the crime" and rejected the request for the release of Timmons on his own recognizance.

However, Shelton did agree to reduce the bail to $100,000. Kane had asked Shelton to set bail from $5,000 to $10,000.

Kane also asked the court to impose a limited "gag order" to reduce the amount of publicity about the case presently aired in the Bay Area news media.

Judge Shelton was given 14 newspaper articles and three television reporters were called to the stand to testify.

A second suspect arrested in the case, John J. Reiser, 17, of Belmont, is being held at Hillcrest Juvenile Hall.

ARMOR SCHOOL

FT. KNOX, Ky. — Private Theodore P. M. Donohue, whose wife, Taffy Dee, lives at 2301 Carlmont Drive, Belmont, recently completed an eight-week tracked vehicle mechanic course at the U.S. Army Armor School, Ft. Knox, Ky.

During the course, students were trained to repair engines, transmissions, and the fuel, electrical and hydraulic systems of the Army's tracked vehicles. They also learned to perform recovery operations for abandoned, damaged, disabled or mired vehicles.

THE FIRST WORD of each 8 point type ad will be spelled out. Abbreviations will be accepted on the first word in 12 point or larger type lines. However, any ad that does not begin with an alphabetical character will not be in alphabetical sequence.

DEADLINE: Classified advertising must be placed by 3:00 p.m. day preceding publication, Monday through Friday. 12 noon Saturday for Monday's publication and 48 hours preceding holidays.

CANCELLATION: Cancellation orders must be received before 3:00 p.m. on the day preceding publication for all line advertisements appearing in The Times from Tuesday through Saturday and before 12 noon Saturday for Monday's publication. Display Classified must be cancelled in writing 48 hours prior to publication date.

ERRORS: No responsibility is assumed by publisher for errors in any advertisement covered by order, nor for the omission of any advertisement in whole or in part, nor for failure to comply with the placement of advertising as ordered either as to frequency or volume. In no event shall publisher be liable for special damages or consequential damages even if it has been notified of the possibility of such damages.

Errors in published advertisements must be reported immediately; and if done, publisher will publish an appropriate correction and where publisher deems it necessary a rerun of the advertisement as corrected, if in publisher's judgment the error substantially varies the meaning of the advertisement as ordered. Such corrections will be made only as to those advertisements which are ordered for one insertion, and as to the first insertion only when ordered for more than one insertion.
